STATUTES OF INDIANA. GAVIN & HORD'S REVISION.

The second volume of Messrs. Gavin & Hord's compilation of Indiana Statutes has Just appeared. This volume Decatur-David H. Van Buskirk . . . . . completes their work. Its mechanical execution is ver Delaware-Alfred Kilgore ...... editors have bestowed on it, merit the highest praise. such a work.

The second volume embraces all the public statutes of Indiana now in force upon the subjects to which it relates, and the first all excepting the acts of the last regular and extra sessions of the Legislature. It is a great excellence of the compilation that all existing statutes on each subject are collected together in the same place in these Grant—Henley James..... volumes; so that the reader can see at a glance all the Greene-John Humphreys...... legislation in force en any given subject. Take, for ex- Harrison-John Lemmon ..... 1 ample, the act of 1852, organizing Courts of Common Hancock-Geo, Y. Atkinson. . . . . . . This is the first time that private enterprize has at- | Marion-John C. Tarkington and W. H. tempted the publication of Indiana statutes. The attempt, I do not doubt, will be successful, and will duly reward the learned editors and enterprizing publishers. Every lawyer will, of course, purchase these volumes; and every clerk, sheriff, and justice of the peace of the State, will find it to his advantage to own them. DAVID M'DONALD. Indianapolis, June 5, 1862 The foregoing notice by Judge McDonald, of Gavin &

Hono's Compilation of the Statutes of Indiana, is not designed as a puff of the work, but is an unsolicited commendation of the ability, accuracy, and completenes with which these volumes have been prepared.

The second volume, which has just been issued from the pross, is being delivered to subscribers as rapidly as possible. This edition of the statutes will be found a necessity to every lawyer, justices of the peace, and county officers in the State. The publication of the work is a private enterprize, and the publishers' only hope for renuneration is in its sale to those for whose convenience it was prepared. The two volumes contain about 1600 pages of matter, nearly double the quantity embraced the revision of 1852.

The price of the work is $4 50 per volume, or $9 00 for the two volumes. Orders addressed to the subscriber wil J. J. BINGHAM, receive prompt attention. Indianapolis, Ind. June 7th, 1862.
